II. INCOME GUIDELINES

Every proposal that is approved will be required to provide ongoing evidence that the beneficiaries of the program meet certain income guidelines. For those programs involving housing, affordable rent guidelines are also required.

The Division of Community Development can assist you in working with these HUD-mandated requirements.

INCOME GUIDELINES

The following guidelines represent income limits by household size and maximum annual income as determined by HUD for assistance under the Community Development Block Grant 2022 Action Plan.

Maximum Income Levels
Effective Date: 01/01/22
(Based on 80% of Median Family Income)

To determine whether a family or household is low- or moderately low -income, grantees may select any of the definitions listed below for each activity. The definitions are as follows: "Annual income," as defined under the Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments program at 24 CFR 813.106. This definition includes Wages, salaries, tips, commissions, etc.; adjusted gross income as defined for purposes of reporting under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040 for individual Federal annual income tax purposes.

Estimate the annual income of a family or household by programing the prevailing rate of income of each person at the time assistance is provided for the individual, family, or household. Estimated annual income shall include income from all family or household members, as applicable. Income or asset enhancement derived from the CDBG-assisted activity shall not be considered in calculating estimated annual income.

Low- and moderate-income household means a household having an income equal to or less than the Section 8 low-income limit established by HUD.

Low- and moderate-income person means a member of a family having an income equal to or less than the Section 8 low-income limit established by HUD. Unrelated individuals will be considered as one-person families for this purpose.

CDBG RFP FISCAL YEAR 2023
III. ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION

The City will evaluate all CDBG proposals in a three-phase process:

PHASE ONE will involve a review of the proposals by the staff of the Division of Community Development for conformance to the submission requirements and a determination of whether the proposals meet the minimum criteria established by HUD. Each proposal will be reviewed for program eligibility under the regulations of the Community Development Block Grant Program, and feasibility for implementation.

PHASE TWO will involve an evaluation of the proposal merits by the staff of the Division of Community Development. During this phase, and at its discretion, City staff may conduct interviews with qualifying applicants and provide the applicant the opportunity to clarify their proposal and advise the City of any additional factors which may be relevant.

PHASE THREE will be a review of the applications and recommendations of the Department of Policy and Planning to the Business Administrator, Mayor and East Orange City Council.

ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES

Before preparing a request for funding, first determine whether the proposed activity or program is an eligible activity per federal regulations. The applicable CDBG regulations are in these RFP instructions. This listing defines eligible and ineligible activities for the respective programs. If the proposal does not meet at least one of the three national objectives for CDBG funding or is determined to be ineligible under other applicable CDBG regulations, the program cannot be considered for funding.

NATIONAL OBJECTIVES (FOR CDBG APPLICATIONS)

The primary objective of the CDBG program is to benefit low and moderate-income persons whose income is at or below 80% of median income and/or reside in census tracts with at least 51% of the residents have incomes at or below 80% of the median income for the area. Priority will be given to those applications that meet national objective #1 as stated below. Without exception, all CDBG program activities must meet one of the programs National Objectives listed below:

- National Objective 1: Principally benefits low and moderate-income persons with incomes at or below 80% of the median income (Code of Federal Regulation citation 570.208(a).)
- National Objective 2: Aids in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight (Code of Federal Regulation citation 570.208(b).)
- National Objective 3: Qualifies as a certified urgent need (Code of Federal Regulation citation 570.208(c).)

Section 570.208 of the Code of Federal Regulations lists the criteria to determine whether a CDBG-assisted activity complies with the national objectives stated above.

SELECTION: RANKING CRITERIA FOR FUNDING PROPOSALS

Emphasis will be placed on applicants who meet or exceed the standards discussed in this section. For those providers who are proposing new or expanded programs, emphasis will additionally focus on capacity and exemplary past performance, (See Section III. D. Capacity for detail).

Staff will utilize the following criteria, in addition to HUD eligibility requirements and the City's Consolidated Plan priorities, in evaluating proposals submitted for CDBG funding:

A. IMPACT ON CONSOLIDATED PLAN PRIORITY NEEDS

The need for the proposed program will be determined by identifying how the program impacts upon the adopted Consolidated Plan Priority Needs. Therefore, applications must provide a clear explanation of how the program impacts upon Consolidated Plan Priority Needs. Greater consideration will be given to programs that provide a clear description of the program with supporting data and methodology of how the program will meet the Plan's Priority Needs.

B. BENEFIT TO LOW- AND MODERATE-INCOME PERSONS

The primary objective of the CDBG program is the development of healthy communities "by providing decent housing and a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities principally for persons of low and moderate income." [HUD requires that, at a minimum, 70% of the aggregate amount of CDBG funds received by the City must be used for activities that benefit lower income people.] For the purpose of CDBG: Income is defined as, the adjusted gross income as defined for purposes of reporting under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040 for individual federal annual income tax purposes.

Projects are required to benefit low and moderate-income (LMI) persons and must be designed to include participation by such persons. A CDBG-assisted activity "benefits lower income people" if it meets any one of the four following tests:

1. The Low-Moderate Income National Objective – Housing Activities.

- Housing-related CDBG activities "benefit" lower income people only if occupied by low and moderate-income households at the completion of rehabilitation.
- In multifamily buildings (3 or more units), at least 51% of the units must be occupied by low and moderate-income households. For structures with two (2) units at least one of the units must be so occupied. For rental housing, occupancy by low-moderate income households must be at affordable rents.

2. The Low-Moderate Income National Objective – Jobs

The business receiving CDBG assistance must justify that the assistance will benefit low and moderate-income individuals. There are two possible ways it can meet this claim:

- At least 51% of the jobs created or "retained" by the business because of the CDBG assistance must be either filled by or "available to" low- and moderate-income individuals. (Jobs are to be counted on a full-time-equivalent basis.)
- "Available to" means either: the job does not require special skills or additional education; or, the business agrees to hire someone and train them for the job. In addition, the business and city must try to ensure that low- and moderate-income individuals get first consideration for filling the job.

3. The Low-Moderate Income National Objective – Limited Clientele

Some CDBG-assisted activities are either facilities or services that, by their special nature, serve people who are generally presumed to be low-moderate income. Examples include abused children, battered spouses, senior citizens, severely disabled adults, homeless persons, illiterate adults, persons living with AIDS and migrant farmworkers. HUD calls these presumed benefits. In order to meet the national objective requirements under presumed benefit, the facility or service must exclusively serve persons in the aforementioned categories.

(1) A low-moderate income limited clientele activity provides benefits principally to persons whose income is at or below 80% of median. At least 51% of the beneficiaries of the activity must be low-moderate income persons for the activity to meet the national objective. To demonstrate compliance with the national objective, clients or participants in the activity must provide verifiable evidence about their family size and income so that it is evident that at least 51% of the clientele are persons whose family income does not exceed 80% of the median income for the area or the activity must be of such nature and in such location that it may reasonably be concluded that the activities clientele will primarily be low-moderate income persons (e.g. a day care center that is designed to serve residents of a public housing complex) or have income requirements that limit access to the activity exclusively to low-moderate income persons.

(2) The activity requires users to provide information about their family income and size.

4. The Area Benefit Test for measuring lower income benefit. Many CDBG activities can benefit all people in an area, no matter what their income is. Examples include street improvements and neighborhood facilities. Such programs must meet the "area benefit test" if they are to be counted as benefiting lower income people. To meet this test, the area must be primarily residential and at least 51% of the residents of the "area" must be lower income. For the purpose of CDBG "area" is defined as the primary service location(s) benefiting low-income residents in a primarily residential neighborhood. Applicants must clearly establish and identify the boundaries and rationale for the selected geographic service area where the proposed project will take place.

In all cases, all applications scored under the low and moderate-income criterion will include review and scoring of the following:

- LMI benefit activity selected
- How LMI persons will be determined
- The absolute number of persons to be served
- The percent of qualifying LMI persons to be served
- How the low and moderate-income persons will benefit

To evaluate program applications, 51% of beneficiaries must be low and moderate-income. Programs that cannot demonstrate 51% LMI benefit will not be funded.

C. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION, PERFORMANCE EVALUATION CRITERIA & BUDGET

The content and soundness of all applicants' program design will be evaluated. This evaluation shall include a review of proposed program activities set forth in the narrative and the budget to support these activities.

Several factors will be considered when reviewing a program's budget. All budget reviews will include, but not be limited to, the following considerations:

- Methods used to derive cost estimates
- Completeness and date of cost estimates
- Relationship between cost and the activities to be undertaken
- Cost per unit, if applicable
- Other items deemed relevant to success of the proposed activities

D. CAPACITY

Program sponsors must demonstrate the ability to carry out the proposed activities. Program sponsors will be evaluated on experience, administrative capacity, and financial management. Consideration will be given to currently funded CDBG program providers with exemplary performance records. Exemplary performance is defined as: receiving a high score in performance evaluations conducted by the Division of Community Development and consistently meeting or exceeding the accomplishment goals established for the CDBG-funded activities.

E. LEVERAGE

Consideration will be given to the amount of non-CDBG funds committed to the program. The greater the financial support or leveraging from local and other sources, the greater the potential impact that CDBG funds will have on meeting local community needs. Documentation must be provided with the application to verify the availability of leverage resources.

F. OTHER APPLICATION FACTORS

Applicants are encouraged to develop a program that has a substantial and comprehensive effect on the needs and conditions identified in their application. These qualities will be carefully evaluated in the review of your application using the evaluation criteria presented on the CDBG Proposal Application Evaluation Worksheet found in Section VI of these instructions.

It is strongly recommended that you consider these factors before preparing your application, as they are the same factors that will be used to judge the overall feasibility of your proposal.

VI. EVALUATION OF CDBG PROPOSALS

Evaluation Criteria 2023

Review
Timeline

Community Development Block Grant [CDBG] funds are awarded through a competitive proposal evaluation process. The evaluation considers all aspects of the proposal as described in the RFQ and proposal application.

Proposals are reviewed by the staff of the City's Division of Community Development who first review each application for threshold information [completeness of application] and then for content. The Division Staff will review each proposal, ranking them using the City's Proposal Application Evaluation Worksheet. Should a question arise during its review, the Division reserves the right to contact the applicant for clarification. The results of those evaluations are then presented to the Mayor's Review Committee that renders the final decision on grant awards.

While a well-written proposal is no guarantee of funding, this is a highly competitive process where the completeness, conciseness and responsiveness to the criteria described in the Application is of utmost importance.

Please contact the Division of Community Development at 973.266.5140 should you have any questions concerning this process or the application, itself.

All completed proposal applications are due without exception on Tuesday, February 28, 2023 no later than 12noon. There are no exceptions to this deadline.

3. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION CRITERIA

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) requires recipients of federal funds to assess the productivity and impact of their programs. In response, The City of East Orange Division of Community Development has implemented a Performance Evaluation System. The System will help to quantify the effectiveness of programs and establish clearly defined outcomes.

Per HUD's requirements, all proposals must demonstrate how they would perform using this system should they receive funding.

Please note the following definitions specific to this system as you prepare your application and the chart on page 8. YOU ONLY NEED TO SUBMIT THE CHART WITH YOUR PROPOSAL; YOU DO NOT NEED TO SUBMIT THE INSTRUCTION PAGES.

GUIDANCE FOR PERFORMANCE EVALUATION SYSTEM FORM

The Performance Evaluation System Form is designed to provide the City and applicants with a concise description of how the proposed program will meet City goals of the Consolidated Plan and Neighborhood Strategy Areas and create desired change in citizens and the community. The information provided in this form will be used by reviewers to determine if your program should be funded.

Some general suggestions for completing this form:

- It is very important that you do not “over-promise” on what your program can realistically deliver. Do not program that you can start delivering services one week after your contract is finalized if you need to hire and train staff. Be realistic about the time frame for implementation. Similarly, do not program serving 200 individuals if you're staffing, and budget simply will not enable you to do so. View this proposal as the beginning of a long-term relationship with a funding source. If you over-promise now, you will not be believed in the future. If your program is funded and you do not deliver on what you have programmed in this table, it is possible that your payments will be delayed, or the funds will be reprogrammed.
- Be as specific and concise as possible.
- Technical assistance on identifying and describing goals, outcomes and units of service will be provided at the February 10th CDBG Preliminary Application Workshop described elsewhere in this RFP.
- Should your program be funded, the Performance Evaluation System Form will be used as the data base for drafting your contract and as a framework for monitoring implementation of the program. Because your program accomplishments will be translated directly into the contract scope of work and into the reporting requirements that are part of the monitoring process, it is important that you are realistic about your estimates. Successful applicants will be provided technical assistance to identify data collection tools and procedures that verify outcomes.

Definition of Terms:

Needs Statement is a statement as to an unmet need within the City that is identified in this RFP under Section IV Community Development Needs from the Consolidated Plan.

Program Goal is a broad statement that describes what can reasonably be achieved by completing the program. Goals are generally directly related to the purpose of an organization and express that purpose concisely. Examples are:

- Increase access to legal services to individuals without financial resources
- Improve the quality of life of aging or physically impaired adults
- Improve access to nutritious food for low-income individuals/families
- Maintain housing stability for individuals/families at risk of homelessness/eviction
- Increase the affordable housing stock
- Create new job opportunities that pay a living wage
- Improve the employability skills of low-income individuals
- Place unemployed and under-employed individuals in living wage positions
- Increase/improve the literacy skills of adults

Applicant goals should be directly related to the Consolidated Plan. These are the objectives the City has developed through its community input and assessment process. It is important that your goals relate directly to the goals identified by the City.

Proposed Activity provides how the City can evaluate the degree to which a contract is being fulfilled. To be of any use, these activities must be quantifiable and provide a level of specificity. It is important for each applicant to list the major activity that must be accomplished to implement the program. Activities will vary significantly depending upon the nature of the program, but could include hiring and training staff, recruiting clients, initiating specific program activities, etc. For many programs, developing clear definitions of units of service is extremely challenging, for others it is very simple. The following provides some examples of clear measurable activities:

- Hot lunch daily
- Tutoring session of ½ hours for 4 students
- Counseling session of 1 ½ hours for 20 couples
- Provision of free paint to 20 low-income senior East Orange residents
- Day of shelter for one low-income East Orange resident
- Half hour of legal counseling for a low-income East Orange resident
- Units of affordable housing (as defined by HUD)

For the purposes of preparing proposals, the City would like applicants to define as best they can the activities they propose to deliver and the number of those activities that will be provided. During the contract development phase, approved applicants will be assisted in refining the definitions and honing the programmed number of activities to be delivered.

Expected Output is more specific descriptions of what your program is intended to accomplish. It should be specific, time-limited, and measurable. Expected outputs describe the activities you propose to provide, or other tasks that you propose to undertake. The following are examples:

- To develop 20 units of affordable housing by December 20, 2024
- To distribute 100 nutritious meals weekly to low-income East Orange residents
- To conduct 6 four-week parenting training sessions for 8 families in each session
- To refer 250 families per month to appropriate health services

Expected Outcome describes the hoped-for effect of activities or other process objectives. They should be realistic and realizable within the timeframe of the grant. They are often evaluated based on Client Satisfaction Surveys, which assess the degree to which clients or others (parents/teachers/probation officers/customers) consider that the expected outcomes have been met. The following are examples of expected outcomes:

- By June 30, 2023, the test scores of 20 participating students will have increased 10%
- 80% of clients will rate services as “very effective” or “effective.”
- New residents of renovated affordable housing will rate the housing as “very satisfactory” or “satisfactory” in a survey of all new residents.
- Based after program completion. upon self-reporting, 40% of clients will remain clean and sober for six months
- 80% of clients receiving free paint/loans/housing mediation/legal services will rate service as “highly satisfactory”. 50% will indicate that the service enabled them to remain housed, start their business, and resolve their legal problem.

It is important that the expected outcome can be measured. In completing the Performance Evaluation System Form, provide one expected output that relates to the services you would deliver, and one expected outcome that relates to the impact that program is expected to have on the community or person(s) benefiting from the activity.

Deteriorating or Deteriorated Areas are described as those areas where sufficient data has been collected to affirm that a significant percentage of the dwelling units in the given area have such disrepair and maintenance deficiencies as to warrant immediate action.

Examples would be:

1. 15 percent or more occupied rental units in dilapidated multiple dwellings.
2. 15 percent or more occupied rental units in multiple dwellings with three or more building defects;
or
3. 15 percent or more occupied rental units with three or more maintenance deficiencies in multiple dwellings.

Furthermore, the inclusion of code enforcement activities funded by CDBG must also demonstrate that the investment made in the designated code enforcement areas will help stem the tide of deterioration. Code enforcement must be coupled together with other activities to arrest the decline in each area. A combination of code enforcement, city-supported emergency repairs, housing rehabilitation, economic development, or social service investments must be identified prior to funding the designated code enforcement areas to help stem the tide of abandonment and arrest the decline in the area.
